International Institute for Population Sciences, Mumbai (Deemed University), Project: Maternal and Neonatal Health (MNH) Exemplar Study, India

Seeking the following positions for a collaborative project between the International Institute for Population sciences (IIPS), Mumbai and University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, CA funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Applications are invited for in person interview on job contract/temporary basis till the funding is available or till the given appointment period, whichever is early for the following position.

Position	No. of positions	Qualifications	Remuneration (Consolidated)
Research Officer	One	Essential: Master in Population Studies / Master degree in Statistics/Bio-statistics & Demography/Health Statistics	INR 50,000.00/ per month (subject to qualification and
		Desirable: Experience in analysing large scale survey (quantitative) data and project report/thesis preparation. Past work on Small Area Estimation related to maternal and child health would be additional advantage. Preference will be given to those having experience working in Python	experience)
		Note : Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise.
Senior Research Officer	One	Essential: Master in Population Studies with one-year experience / Master degree in Statistics/Bio-statistics & Demography/Health Statistics with one years' experience of working in Maternal and Child Health; and Small Area Estimation related Research Projects.	INR 60,000.00/ per month (subject to qualification and experience)
		Desirable: Experience in analysing large scale survey (quantitative) data and project report/thesis preparation. Past work on Small Area Estimation related to maternal and child health would be additional advantage.
		Note : Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise.
Junior qualitative researcher	One	Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative systems Analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: At least two years of experience engaged with the government health systems in India focusing on maternal and child health Fluency in English, Marathi, & Hindi Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise.	INR 50,000.00/ per month (subject to qualification and experience)

Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Restarcher Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least five years experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative systems. Plancay in Hindia and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews Experience in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Adlasti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Consultant One One Consultant One Consultant One One Consultant One One Consultant One One Consultant One One One Consultant One One One One One One One O	Senior	Three	Essential:	INR 75,000.00/ per
Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least five years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative systems Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise One Essential: Maker degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems in India Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong manification and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with governmen		Timee		-
Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least five years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and ural administrative systems Fluency in Hindi and English Strong amplyical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Adlasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews Reperience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Destrable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Adlasti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Qualitative One Essential: One Essential: One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Adlasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience working collaborativel	-
At least five years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative systems Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Adas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable Desirable PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Adas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally satisfule otherwise. Qualitative One Consultant One Consultant One Sessential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong amilytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Allas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focu
Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative systems Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews; key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Qualitative One Consultant One Consultant One Consultant One Consultant Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interview focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research tea			At least five years' experience engaged with the government health systems in
and rural administrative systems Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews; key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Destrable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlasti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Demonstrated shilly to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Destrable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative data analy			India
Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews; key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and chid health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlasti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in ease of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise One Essential: One Sesential: Nater degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5			Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems
Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo. Allasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews; key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Adlasti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Qualitative One Consultant One Consultant One Consultant At least 10 years experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative systems Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitat
G.g., Nivio, Allasti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews; key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Allasti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Consultant One Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems in Plorncy in Hindi and English Strong will government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews,
Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews; key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., nVivo, Allas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Qualitative Onc Consultant Onc Consultant Onc Consultant All exist for public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Allas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Sub
communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews; key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews of page to the proper of the page to t
Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews; key informant interviews Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qua
Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Qualitative One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews of page and pag
Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams, and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise One Consultant One Essential: One Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential q
Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Qualitative Consultant One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Sesential: Qualitative Consultant One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlasti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Biostatistics & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Qualitative Consultant One Consultant One Consultant Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong amplifical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in & Demography, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Destrable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in			Desirable:
Administration or Similar Subjects At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Consultant One Consultant
At least two years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise One Consultant One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise Qualitative Consultant One Consultant Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in child health At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise One Consultant One Cassential Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
At least two years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in Qualitative Consultant One Essential: One Consultant One Co
Qualitative Consultant One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
Qualitative Consultant One Essential: Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in			Solivate (e.g., 11110, 11thosti)
Consultant			Note : Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
Master degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in			case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise
Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in		One		7 7
Subjects Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in	Consultant
Demonstrated ability to manage a research team conducting over 50 qualitative interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in interviews and focus groups At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in				experience)
At least 10 years' experience engaged with the government health systems in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in India Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in Strong familiarity with the structure of the Indian government health systems and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in and rural administrative system Fluency in Hindi and English Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in Strong analytical skills with experience in qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
(e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in			Fluency in Hindi and English
Strong written and verbal communication skills, including comfort communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in communicating with government officials Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in Experience in conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in key informant interviews focusing on maternal and child health Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in Experience working collaboratively in multidisciplinary research teams and field studies Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
Desirable: PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in PhD degree in Public Health, Social Sciences, Population Studies, Health Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
Systems, Health Services Management, Health Administration or Similar Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in			Desirable:
Subjects At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
At least 5 years of experience conducting qualitative focus group discussions and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in			• and interviews, key informant interviews At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in			· ·
At least 5 years of experience working with qualitative data analysis software (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in (e.g., NVivo, Atlas.ti) Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in Note: Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in
			() () () () () () () () () ()
case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise.			Note : Essential qualifications may be relaxed by the selection committee in case of a candidate found exceptionally suitable otherwise.

The shortlisted candidates may attend interview walk-in person on May 27, 2024 at 11.00 AM in NFHS committee room at International Institute for Population Sciences, Govandi Station Road, Deonar Mumbai-400 088. No TA/DA will be paid for attending interview.

The position is full time and employed purely on contract basis in the MNH Study for the period of five months or for the given appointment period, whichever is early subject to the availability of fund. Selected candidates will report to the Principal Investigators of MNH Study.

For any further queries on the project, please contact the project coordinators at mnhexemplars@iipsindia.ac.in

Asst. Registrar (Admin) IIPS, Mumbai